J. A. LANDSBOROUGH IS ACQUITTED.

It Took Just Fifteen Minutes for Jury to Decide He Had not Violated the Law in Registering Falsely

Jas. A. Landsborough of this city, charged with illegally registering and voting as a citizen of the United States, after a trial lasting several days, was acquitted in Judge Seawell's department of the Superior Court last Monday. The jury only deliberated fifteen minutes after the case had been submitted to it.

Whether this verdict enfranches Landsborough, who is a native of Australia, we are not as yet advised.

The accused had quite a number of sympathizers in this valley, all of whom gave him a good character and this had considerable weight with the jury.

The conviction of Landsborough, who was born in Australia and came to Sonoma Valley when a little boy, was sought on the following paragraphs of the law regulating the registration of voters:

20. Citizenship cannot be conferred upon an alien child by adoption.

21. A citizen of the United States cannot by adopting a child of foreign nationality, confer upon said child, the privilege of citizenship.

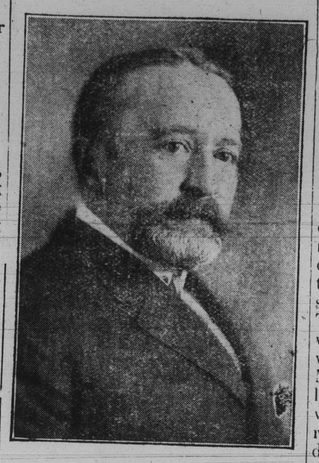
James D. Phelan's Announcement of Candidacy for United States Senator.



I am a candidate for United States Senator from California. My conclusion to be such candidate was reached after consultation with not only my party friends and well-wishers, but also non partisan advisers throughout the State.

I believe that I can render service to my State in Washington.

California is conspicuous in the world's affairs, especially since the construction of the Panama Canal. Questions affecting human rights, Oriental immigration, foreign and interstate commerce, public lands, water conservation and control, internal improvements and many others press for solution. A vast commonwealth is in the making. Much depends upon the zeal and devotion of California's representatives. Semi-officially, I have been frequently in Washington, sometimes commissioned by Governors of the State or by Mayors of San Francisco, on such matters as the exclusion of coolie immigration and the acquisition of a municipal water supply for San Francisco, so I feel that I am not unfamiliar with public business in Washington and the needs of our people at home.

Woodrow Wilson has asked his countrymen for support. In his inaugural address he said: "I call all honest, all patriotic, forward-looking men to my side. God helping me, I will not fail them if they will counsel and sustain me." I believe that the interest and duty of the people of this State is to rally to the side of the President and help his great purpose to make this government free and the business of the country free, to the end that happiness and prosperity may be, as far as possible, the portion of all.

Public service has been my ambition. I will be proud to have greater opportunity. Convinced that a man in harmony with the Administration can most benefit California at this time, I respectfully ask the men and women of my State to support my candidacy for United States Senator at the first popular election under the new law.

JAMES D. PHELAN.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC'S PREMIUM STATIONS.

There are Thirty-Six in this State, one of Which is Located in Kenwood in the Upper Part of Sonoma Valley

Agents at thirty-six stations on the Pacific system of the Southern Pacific Company have been awarded silver medals for having premium stations, according to the decision of officials of railroad on the results of the recent annual inspection trip for the year 1913. The honor for the best division was won by the Coast division, of which T. Ahern is superintendent. M. Lahey, roadmaster of the Salinas district of the Coast division, won the gold medal for the best roadmaster's district and H. Sheridan, foreman of Section 16 of the Salinas district, won the gold medal for the best section.

The agents who won the medals for best-kept stations are those at Berkeley, University avenue; Camarillo, Cobre, Covina, Dundee, Durham, Guadalope, Iron Point, Kennet, Kenwood, Klamath Falls, Los Altos, Lowell, Medford, Midlake, Millbrae, Monrovia, Oakland, 16th street, First and Broadway; Oceano, Paso Robles, Promontory Point, Roseburg, Santa Barbara, Santa Cruz, Santa Margarita, San Luis Obispo, Shasta Springs, South San Francisco, Tulare, Volta, Watsonville Junction, West Weber, Wheatland, Woodland and Yuba City.

The inspection was begun in October and was concluded in December, the officials having gone over and noted conditions on more than 6,000 miles of track, 792 sections and 670 stations. The medals are awarded annually and the men take a keen interest in the competition for official recognition of their work by the Southern Pacific in this form of prize.

Street Improvements

Now that the weather has moderated, the Street Committee of the Board of City Trustees have been busy all week repairing the principal thoroughfares inside the city limits. The cross walks are also receiving attention and are being overhauled and relaid. The stormy weather of last month played havoc with our streets and the Trustees have a job on hand sure to put them in proper shape for automobiles and other vehicles.

Base Ball Notes.

Practice will begin in a few weeks. Those who have signified their intention of trying out for the team are: G. Block, G. Weaver, Boccoli Helberg, Evans, W. Block, Canevari, Nessi, La Torres and Bartoli. Geo. McNab is a candidate for manager of the Sonoma team. A meeting will be held in the near future at which a manager, captain, secretary, treasurer and a board of directors, composed of local business men, will be chosen.

The Seals will all be on hand at Boyes' on Feb. 24th. Big times ahead for the fans.

There are plenty of good ball players in the county but good umpires are scarce. If there is a good brave, competent "ump" lurking somewhere nearby, let him show up at the first practice game. Irishmen preferred.

Watch for base ball poetry next week.

Gov. Johnson's Friends Scheming to Place His Name on Republican Ballot

Advices from San Francisco says that a report, coming from an authoritative source, that friends of Governor Johnson are planning to place his name on the Republican primary ballot, as a candidate for governor, has further complicated the already complex political situation.

According to the report, the Progressives are discouraged at the registration figures, and the plan to place Johnson on the Republican ballot is for the purpose of discovering the governor's strength in the Republican party before the November elections.

It is no longer a secret that the third party adherents have been dumbfounded at the magnitude of the Republican registration, particularly in the Los Angeles region, where Republican registrations nearly equal the combined Progressive and Democratic figures. These figures, together with the declarations of Senators Bristow, La Follette and Cummins and of Prendergast and Stimson, close friends of Col. Roosevelt, all of whom see no future for the Progressive Party and have aligned themselves as Republicans, leaves little justification, it is being pointed out, for the organization of the third party in California This fact, it is argued, accounts in large measure for the registration figures. Experienced politicians are contending that, regardless of the ethics which are involved, in placing Johnson on the Republican ballot the Governor's friends would be committing a blunder equal to the desertion of La Follette, and the barring of Republicans from voting their party ticket in the presidential election.

Already the opinion is being expressed that if Johnson's friends desire to test their candidate's strength in others than his own party, they could more consistently and with less chance of injury to the progressive cause, make him a candidate on the Democratic ticket rather than on the ballot of the Republican party which he has condemned in unmeasured language, declared to be dead and unfit for the support of right-minded men.

"If Governor Johnson permits his friends to make this move, he will without doubt lose the respect of a large portion of his Progressive Party admirers," declares T. S. Minot, a San Francisco attorney and a prominent member of the Republican Progressive League. "A movement to insure progressive control of the Republican party through the election of progressive county and State committeemen, is already well under way and will be organized at Stockton. With Johnson on the Republican ballot, for a time the progressive strength in the Republican party would be divided to a greater or less extent, and new hope and opportunity offered to the reactionary element, at present active, but without a chance of success at the primaries.

"Republican progressives, though they do not believe the Progressive party can endure, are not questioning the sincerity of the rank and file of that movement. Their aim is to safeguard the future by maintaining a progressive organization within the dominant party in California so that when the third party proves its ineffectiveness as an instrument for progress, no ground shall be lost in following up the progressive Republican victories of 1910.

"Johnson is equipped to make a strong fight for his party on his record of achievement. He and his friends pleaded expediency in deserting La Follette, and lost ground. The securing of a place for Johnson on the Republican ballot, at the expense of the movement to maintain the Republican party under progressive leadership, would surely react in a similar manner, no matter how expedient a political move it might, at first, appear to be."

Boy's and Girls' Agricultural and Industrial Fair.

Plans are being made by the students of the Sonoma Valley Union High School to hold a Boy's and Girl's Agricultural and Industrial Fair this coming fall. It will be the first enterprise of the kind ever undertaken by the school and merits the attention, support and cooperation of the people of the community. At this fair will be exhibited the work and achievements of the children and youth of Sonoma Valley along the line of agriculture, horticulture, poultry raising and domestic products—the latter including sewing, plain cooking and canning of fruits and vegetables. While the fair is planned primarily for the pupils enrolled in the schools included in the union district, every individual in Sonoma Valley of the age of eighteen years and under, whether enrolled in any school or not, is urged to raise or prepare some product or article to place on exhibition and compete for the premiums to be offered. Premiums will be given for the best individual exhibit of all garden vegetables, such as tomatoes, potatoes, beets, carrots, squashes, pumpkins, corn, etc. A floral exhibit is also planned and premiums will be offered for the best displays of chrysanthemums and other flowers. The poultry exhibit promises to be especially interesting and there will be many varieties of chickens, ducks, rabbits, and doves on display. The sewing and cooking department will be one of the main features of the fair.

Beside the individual premiums offered, a silver cup will be given to the school whose pupils aggregate the greatest number of premiums in proportion to the enrollment.

The date will be set for the week preceding the County Fair. The program will extend over two days.

Human society is capable of great things if its blue print does not belong to a design other than the design upon which they are laboring.

You must start right if you expect to do a nice job, but my friends expect to come out alright by starting right some day when the job is nearly completed. If we had the right philosophy of life, we would have more fun and more success; we would never see immortal images of God in a tango, which is no dance. It is the device of a fool to find an equilibrium Get the right blue print and slavishly follow it. There is not a good healthy builder in this city can keep on the right track without a constant public worship of God. You can't give another man a light while your candle is out. You must get the right blue print and as God's embassador I will tell you what the King says on Sunday at 11 a. m

GAS PLANT FOR THIS CITY

Application of Messrs. Ralph Murphy and Fred Bulotti Favorably Received by City Trustees

At a regular meeting of the Board of City Trustees, held last Wednesday night, the application of Ralph Murphy and Fred Bulotti, young business men of this city, for a franchise to erect and maintain a gas plant in this city was favorably acted upon, and before adjourning the Trustees decided to grant the franchise to the highest bidder, the advertisement for which will be found elsewhere in these columns.

The promoters, Messrs. Murphy and Bulotti, expect to put in $20,000 or $25,000 in the venture and if granted the franchise will lay gas mains along the principal streets of this city in order to reach every section of the city.

The franchise is advertised to be granted to the highest and best bidder on the first Wednesday in April.

As Messrs. Murphy and Bulotti have no competitors in the field at this time, the franchise will without a doubt be awarded to them by the City Trustees, who will play no favorites in the matter.

Hawk Decapitates Canary Bird in its Cage

James L. Modini, of the Eagle Saloon, is mourning the loss of a fine canary bird, which was decapitated by a chicken hawk last Wednesday morning. The cage containing the bird was hung up on the back porch in the rear of the saloon for an airing, when the hawk, which must have been hovering nearby, suddenly swooped down on the cage and thrusting its sharp beak between the bars of the cage seized the canary and decapitated it, flying off with the head in its beak. Immediately after, Harry Bird, the barkeeper discovered the headless canary lying in the bottom of the cage, while the hawk was still hovering around the cage waiting an opportunity to return and make a meal off its victim.

The cage door was then thrown wide open with the dead canary lying in it in hopes the hawk would return to its attack. This it did, flying directly inside the cage, the door of which was immediately closed and the hawk captured alive. It is now on exhibition in the Eagle Saloon. It is about the size of a small pigeon and is a vicious bird.

The Hay Market.

Somers & Co., San Francisco, in their weekly report of the hay market, have the following to say regarding it for the week ending February 3rd:

"Receipts of hay have of late increased considerably, the total for the past week amounting to 2309 tons and 2624 tons the week previous. The trade has taken care of the increased quantity which has been arriving, although only at lower prices than have prevailed heretofore. The decline has been quite marked of late for all grades of hay with the exception of strictly fancy wheat hay in light bales and strictly fancy tame oat hay which are in light supply; even those grades must be quoted lower.

At the present time the crop prospects are most encouraging in every section of the State. To this fact mainly is due the efforts on the part of holders of hay to dispose of their present stock and it is surprising to realize the quantities of hay which are stored away in various sections of the State and which are now offered for sale at very low prices. In spite of the lower market and the efforts to sell, there has been very litlle hay changing hands recently, dealers evidently preferring to clean up their present supplies before buying further, believing that there is no possibility for an advance in the market and the general opinion prevails that prices will be lower before the new crop is harvested; i. e. of course, providing weather conditions continue favorable.

Alfalfa has also declined in price with but very few sales being made The quantity of alfalfa available for market is heavy, especially in the San Joaquin Valley where large quantities of it were stored away for winter and spring sale.
